

MAXIMILIANO MARTIN | CLARINET

Maximiliano Martin has rapidly established himself as one of the most exciting and charismatic musicians of his generation. He enjoys a multi-faceted career as soloist, chamber musician and as principal clarinetist of the Scottish Chamber Orchestra.

As a soloist he has performed with the Scottish Chamber Orchestra, European Union Chamber Orchestra, Orquesta Real Filarmonía de Galicia, Orquesta Filarmónica de Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, Orquesta Sinfónica del Principado de Asturias, Macedonian Philharmonic Orchestra, Durban Philharmonic and Estonian National Symphony Orchestra with conductors such as Brüggén, Emelyanychev, Ticciati, Manze, Antonini, Swensen, Zacharias and González.

He performs regularly with ensembles and artists such as London Conchord Ensemble, Maxwell and Casals String Quartets, Francois Leleux, Pekka Kuusisto, Alexander Janiczek, Llŷr Williams, Scott Mitchell and Julian Milford.

Martin is in constant demand as principal guest clarinet with many of the world leading orchestras including the Chamber Orchestra of Europe, London Symphony Orchestra, the Halle, the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, the Royal Northern Sinfonia, the Liverpool Philharmonic and Bergen Philharmonic Orchestra. Martin was a member of the National Youth Orchestra of Spain (JONDE) and the Gustav Mahler Jugendorchester.

His extensive discography include Mozart, Weber, Nielsen and Copland Clarinet Concertos, Strauss Duet Concertino, and a comprehensive variety of recordings of the clarinet repertoire including Messiaen's Quartet for the End of Time, Brahms Clarinet Sonatas and Mozart and Brahms Clarinet quintets.

Martin is also active in the field of education, giving masterclasses in places like the Royal College of Music, Royal Northern College of Music, UC Davis University in San Francisco and Malmö Academy of Music in Sweden. Martin is Honorary Professor of Woodwind at St Andrews University and was visiting Clarinet professor at the University of Kangnam in Seoul, South Korea.

Martin is one of the Artistic Directors of the Chamber Music Festival of La Villa de la Orotava held every year in his home town.

Maximiliano Martín is a Buffet Crampon Artist and performs on Buffet Tosca Clarinets.
